Counsel,

In light of the record materials available to new counsel, we have manually prepared the attached redline indicating additions via yellow highlights on newly added text, as well as in the left margin parallel to newly added images.

Best,
Jennifer

Thank you, Joseph. Can you also please confirm (a) if you are still going to send a redline version, and (b) that the only confidential information is Google's?

Brazos's Amended Final Infringement Contentions in Case No. 20-cv-585, including supporting appendices containing confidential source code material, are available for download at this link:  Download Link.

Due to document-conversion difficulties we are slightly delayed in preparing a redline version of the contention charts. We hope to finalize and serve that tomorrow.

Please advise if you encounter any technical difficulties.

Andre
